JUDGMENT NIGHT

Composed and Conducted by ALAN SILVESTRI
Intrada Special Collection Volume ISC 23

Stephen Hopkins' Judgment Night is a taut-cat-and-mouse thriller in which four suburbanite friends witness a murder and are subsequently hunted through the barren underbelly of Chicago by a band of merciless killers. Emilio Estevez headlines the film as the level-headed family man Frank Wyatt, part of a cast that included a pre-Oscar-winning Cuba Gooding Jr., a hot-off-Larry Sanders Jeremy Piven, and Dennis Leary as the menacing, wisecracking crime boss, Fallon.

Alan Silvestri creates an intense orchestral score to underline the gritty urban action, blending lengthy suspense sequences for strings with dynamic action motifs for brass and pounding percussion. Silvestri suggests the dark suspense and intense ferocity of Predator 2 - also directed by Stephen Hopkins.

Intrada is proud to present the entire score from the original session masters, supervised by composer Silvestri and including material not used in the finished film. Detailed liner notes and dramatic graphics complement the packaging.
