TOY STORY 3

Music Composed and Conducted by RANDY NEWMAN
Intrada/Disney D001734402

Toy Story 3 demanded that Randy not only write a great deal of music, but a great deal of very diverse music. It needed to be nostalgic, funny, genre-crossing, and full of action and intense drama. But most importantly, it needed to melt your heart. – Lee Unkrich, Director

Intrada is pleased to announce our latest release in conjunction with Walt Disney Records, Randy Newman's score for Toy Story 3. As with the previous Toy Story scores, Newman composed for large orchestra, bringing an epic scope to the animated antics of Woody, Buzz and the other toys. Only in this film, the stakes were higher and the action more intense, requiring Newman to step it up, as the director noted above. And on top of all that, no Toy Story score would be complete without an original song composed and performed by Randy Newman, and this one is no exception, featuring "We Belong Together." The soundtrack also includes: "You've Got a Friend in Me" performed by the Gipsy Kings.

In Toy Story 3, as Andy prepares to leave for college and his toys are packed up for long-term storage, they are mistakenly delivered to a day-care center, where a whole host of resident toys rule with an iron first. Things seem pleasant enough at first, but turn oppressive quickly and it's up to Woody, Buzz, and friends to set things right.
